

Activity Report

Name of the conference/workshop

Technical talk on “Small Community Water and Wastewater Treatment”

Objective of the programme:

To enlighten about the challenges and Opportunities that are present in the Treatment of wastewater

Faculty Coordinator:

Prof. Kshyana Prava Samal

Resource Persons:

Dr. Achintya Bezbaruah from North Dakota University, USA

Duration:

2 hour

Schedule/Programme:

7th March 2020

Summary:

A technical talk on “Small Community Water and Wastewater Treatment” was organized by the school of Civil Engineering, KIIT Deemed to be University under Institution of Civil Engineers (ICE) student chapter on 7th March 2020. (Dr.) B.G Mahapatra, Dean SCE, DU welcomed all the fifty five participants and drew the attention to the achievements and attainment of the University and its students. The event started with the felicitation of the Guest Speaker Dr. Achintya Bezbaruah from North Dakota University, USA by Prof. (Dr.) B.G Mahapatra, Dean SCE, and DU. Dr. Achintya Bezbaruah shared his profuse experience to students who are keen to pursue higher studies as well as give their contribution in the research field. Dr. Bezbaruah started his address by informing about the Challenges and Opportunities that are present in the Treatment of wastewater as well as providing Clean and Drinkable water to the poor people of the Country.

Full Name of Faculty Coordinator: Prof. Kshyana Prava Samal

Date: 9.3.2020

Photographs:

