

International Workshop on Clinical Research Ethics

In today's dynamic World of changing policies, Ethics is the need of the hour to sustain and maintain the human dignity and their rights. To Keep up pace with the ethical rules of regulations a two days International Workshop on Clinical Research Ethics was organized by KIMS in collaboration with National Institute of Health (NIH) of USA . Four faculties namely Prof. (Mrs.) Niyati Das (Vice Principal), Mrs. Kulumina Dash (Programme Co- Ordinator), Mrs. Nibedita Mohanty (Asst. professor) & Mr. Chandan Pradhan from KINS participated in this workshop. Speakers from NIH, ICMR, Niti Aayog, AIIMS Bhubaneswar & Drug controller of India gave their valuable inputs on the theme. The two days workshop ended with a panel discussion by the esteemed speakers to find solutions to various issues raised by the delegates.
