

Application of theories in Nursing Practice

Nursing Theory a creative and rigorous structuring of ideas that project a tentative, purposeful and systematic view of phenomenon. One day seminar on the topic: “Application of Theories in Nursing Practice” was organized by Faculties of KINS on Dt- 25 April 2019 at LT-4 KIMS. The programme was inaugurated by lighting the lamp by Prof.(Mrs.) Amarita Lenka, Principal, CON, KINS, KIIT Deemed to be University, Prof. Pramoda Ku. Nayak, Principal, SON, KINS, KIIT Deemed to be University, Prof. Mrs. Niyati Das , Vice Principal , KINS, KIIT Deemed to be University and other senior faculty members.

Mrs. Trupti Rekha Swain, Tutor delivered the welcome address to the audience and presented a brief overview on Nursing Theory. Mr. Chandan Pradhan, Tutor delivered his talk regarding Bettyneuman Theory. He highlighted on client as an open system, the respond to stressors in the environment. Individual response to stress & the reaction to it.

Mrs. Pramila Baxla, Asst. Prof. discussed on Peplau’s Theory. She emphasized on the phases of interpersonal process, roles in nursing situation & methods for case study in nursing using interpersonal process. How to collect information of a client during admission in a hospital.

Mrs. S Bhaktiswarupa, Tutor discussed about the Roy adaptation Model. She emphasized on individual as a set of interrelated system. The individual strives to maintain a balance between the system & the outside world.

Finally the programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Mrs. Sailabala Sahoo, Tutor, KINS, KIIT Deemed to be university, BBSR.