

Faculty Development Programme

The Faculty Development Programme intends to update the knowledge and skill of faculties and also provide opportunities to impart qualitative education to students. Like every year this year also Faculty development programme was conducted at KIIT, Deemed to be University from 24.06.2018 to 30.06.2018. Two days faculty development programme was organised exclusively for faculties at Kalinga Institute of Nursing Sciences on 28.06.2018 & 29.06.2018 at LT- 5, KIDS from 9am to 5pm. The programme started at 9am with lamp lighting by the dignitaries and was inaugurated by Prof(Mrs) A. Lenka, Principal (CON)KINS by giving the welcome address to august gatherings. The first session of the day started at 9.30am by Dr Nancy Fernandes, Principal , Lilabai Thackersey College of Nursing, Mumbai on the topic "Technology transformation affect our ability to deliver excellent care" followed by summerising by Prof(Mrs) Niyati Das,Vice principal,KINS followed by the group discussion & critics by respective faculty members.Second session of the day was taken by Dr S.J.Nalini Principal and Professor ,SRMC and RI (DU),Chennai on "Driving force for change ,cost and quality concern". The discussion came to an end at 1.30pm followed by lunch. At 2.30 pm Mr.R.Asokan Asso.Prof KINS delivered on "Objective Structured Clinical Evaluation (OSCE)"in an interesting way. At 4pm there was a Skill demonstration by the faculty members on Antenatal palpation ,Neonatal resuscitation ,Active management of third stage of labour, Basic life support and adult resuscitation. The second day session started at 9 am on "challenges for nurse educator" by Dr S.J.Nalini in an interactive way followed by role play on current scenario of class room among teachers. At 11 am, Dr Nancy Fernandes, enlighten the faculty members on "transition of nursing practice to teaching role" with various ways .All the speakers were felicitated by Prof (Mrs) A. Lenka, Principal, Miss Pramoda Kumari Nayak Principal (SON) KINS.Programme was ended by giving vote of thanks by Prof(Mrs) Niyati Das to all speakers and the participants. Faculty Development programme of this year was very much educative, interactive and beneficial for all faculties of KINS to enhance their knowledge and skill.